

CLEVELAND'S NOMINATIONS.

A NEW CIRCUIT JUDGE TO SUCCEED JUDGE JACKSON OF TENNESSEE.

John R. Seymour of Connecticut to be Commissioner of Patents and S. W. Lamoreux of Wisconsin to be Commissioner of the Land Office.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate:

John R. Seymour of Connecticut to be Commissioner of Patents. S. W. Lamoreux of Wisconsin to be Commissioner of the Land Office.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate:

John R. Seymour, nominated to be Commissioner of Patents, is a lawyer by profession, about 45 years of age, and a resident of New York.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate:

John J. Carter, nominated to be Collector of Internal Revenue for the district of Louisiana, is 40 years of age, a resident of Minden, and has taken an active part in the military service.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate:

John J. Carter, nominated to be Collector of Internal Revenue for the district of Louisiana, is 40 years of age, a resident of Minden, and has taken an active part in the military service.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate:

John J. Carter, nominated to be Collector of Internal Revenue for the district of Louisiana, is 40 years of age, a resident of Minden, and has taken an active part in the military service.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate:

John J. Carter, nominated to be Collector of Internal Revenue for the district of Louisiana, is 40 years of age, a resident of Minden, and has taken an active part in the military service.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate:

John J. Carter, nominated to be Collector of Internal Revenue for the district of Louisiana, is 40 years of age, a resident of Minden, and has taken an active part in the military service.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate:

John J. Carter, nominated to be Collector of Internal Revenue for the district of Louisiana, is 40 years of age, a resident of Minden, and has taken an active part in the military service.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate:

John J. Carter, nominated to be Collector of Internal Revenue for the district of Louisiana, is 40 years of age, a resident of Minden, and has taken an active part in the military service.

ALBANY'S SENATORS.

A Committee of the Reichstag Finds that He Was Not a Foreigner.

Berlin, March 22.—There was a very large attendance at the Reichstag to-day. Interest being whetted by the expectation that Hector Alwardt would produce the documents he said he had in his possession showing that during Prince Bismarck's occupancy of the Chancellery fraudulent contracts had been made repeatedly with Hebrew financiers.

When the Reichstag opened to-day nearly all the members were in their seats, and everywhere through the house there were evidences of the excitement that had been caused by the charges made by Hector Alwardt.

Alwardt, in response to these demands, said that after Easter he would supplement the documents he now furnishes with other papers bearing out his statements.

Alwardt again arose and reiterated his charges against Hector Alwardt, and other documents in his possession, among which he said he had a document from the Reichstag to a foreign court, expressing thanks for money sent to the German Government.

Alwardt again arose and reiterated his charges against Hector Alwardt, and other documents in his possession, among which he said he had a document from the Reichstag to a foreign court, expressing thanks for money sent to the German Government.

Alwardt again arose and reiterated his charges against Hector Alwardt, and other documents in his possession, among which he said he had a document from the Reichstag to a foreign court, expressing thanks for money sent to the German Government.

Alwardt again arose and reiterated his charges against Hector Alwardt, and other documents in his possession, among which he said he had a document from the Reichstag to a foreign court, expressing thanks for money sent to the German Government.

THE UNDAUNTED RUNS AROUND.

London, March 22.—A despatch from Malta says that the British war ship Undaunted is reported to be aground in a bad position at Alexandria, Egypt.

THE BEHING SEN COMMISSION.

Paris, March 22.—T. Jefferson Coolidge, United States Minister, and Lord Dufferin, British Ambassador, will present to President Carnot at the Elysee to-morrow the members of the Behring Sea Commission.

Notes of Foreign Happenings.

The British Government meditates relaxing the embargo upon Canadian cattle. Mr. Gladstone dined this evening with Henry White, Secretary of the United States Legation.

Witness McGreevy Not on Hand.

Ottawa, March 22.—The hearing of evidence in the case of Thomas McGreevy and N. K. Connolly, charged with conspiracy to defraud the Dominion Government out of $350,000 in connection with contract work in Quebec harbor, was postponed in the Assize Court this afternoon until September, owing to the intentional absence of Robert H. McGreevy.

MAKING UP FOR LOST TIME.

OFFICE SEEKERS ON HAND EARLY AT THE WHITE HOUSE YESTERDAY.

A Delegation of New York Democrats, with D. Cady Herrick of Albany, Interviewed the President—Judge Herrick Said His Visit Had No Political Significance—Another Lot of New Yorkers Recored Their Applications at the Treasury Department.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—President Cleveland held an unusually crowded reception to-day. The Cabinet meeting yesterday having limited the office seekers to one hour at the White House, so they were on hand early this morning to make up for lost time.

After leaving the President, Judge Herrick said to a reporter of The Sun that his visit was a matter of course, and that he would be in Washington for a few days' rest, he was, and to assist in securing pardon for two prisoners in the Albany penitentiary.

After leaving the President, Judge Herrick said to a reporter of The Sun that his visit was a matter of course, and that he would be in Washington for a few days' rest, he was, and to assist in securing pardon for two prisoners in the Albany penitentiary.

After leaving the President, Judge Herrick said to a reporter of The Sun that his visit was a matter of course, and that he would be in Washington for a few days' rest, he was, and to assist in securing pardon for two prisoners in the Albany penitentiary.

After leaving the President, Judge Herrick said to a reporter of The Sun that his visit was a matter of course, and that he would be in Washington for a few days' rest, he was, and to assist in securing pardon for two prisoners in the Albany penitentiary.

After leaving the President, Judge Herrick said to a reporter of The Sun that his visit was a matter of course, and that he would be in Washington for a few days' rest, he was, and to assist in securing pardon for two prisoners in the Albany penitentiary.

MAY NOT MARRY THE COUNT.

A Betrothed American Girl in Berlin Sends a Message to Her Relatives. Louisville, March 22.—Miss Nellie Peters of this city, whose marriage to Count Gerard of Berlin has been announced to take place in April, called yesterday to relatives all the way from the place to her home.

The Brown University Dinner.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

FURNITURE.

The more ample designs in furniture illustrate in a much greater degree the cleverness of the designers. Charming in particular, graceful of curve, and quite as pleasing to the eye as to the hand, are the new designs in chairs and sofas.

LIVE WASHINGTON TOPICS.

CONGRESSMEN TO HAVE SOME SAY IN THE NAMING OF POSTMASTERS.

The Postmaster-General Says He Desires Their Advice in Regard to Appointments—Senator Harris Elected President Pro Tem of the Senate—The Democrats Offer a Compromise Regarding the Senate's Elective Officers—A New Statistician.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

THE BROWN UNIVERSITY DINNER.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

FURNITURE.

The more ample designs in furniture illustrate in a much greater degree the cleverness of the designers. Charming in particular, graceful of curve, and quite as pleasing to the eye as to the hand, are the new designs in chairs and sofas.

LIVE WASHINGTON TOPICS.

CONGRESSMEN TO HAVE SOME SAY IN THE NAMING OF POSTMASTERS.

The Postmaster-General Says He Desires Their Advice in Regard to Appointments—Senator Harris Elected President Pro Tem of the Senate—The Democrats Offer a Compromise Regarding the Senate's Elective Officers—A New Statistician.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

THE BROWN UNIVERSITY DINNER.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

FURNITURE.

The more ample designs in furniture illustrate in a much greater degree the cleverness of the designers. Charming in particular, graceful of curve, and quite as pleasing to the eye as to the hand, are the new designs in chairs and sofas.

LIVE WASHINGTON TOPICS.

CONGRESSMEN TO HAVE SOME SAY IN THE NAMING OF POSTMASTERS.

The Postmaster-General Says He Desires Their Advice in Regard to Appointments—Senator Harris Elected President Pro Tem of the Senate—The Democrats Offer a Compromise Regarding the Senate's Elective Officers—A New Statistician.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

THE BROWN UNIVERSITY DINNER.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

FURNITURE.

The more ample designs in furniture illustrate in a much greater degree the cleverness of the designers. Charming in particular, graceful of curve, and quite as pleasing to the eye as to the hand, are the new designs in chairs and sofas.

LIVE WASHINGTON TOPICS.

CONGRESSMEN TO HAVE SOME SAY IN THE NAMING OF POSTMASTERS.

The Postmaster-General Says He Desires Their Advice in Regard to Appointments—Senator Harris Elected President Pro Tem of the Senate—The Democrats Offer a Compromise Regarding the Senate's Elective Officers—A New Statistician.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Five members of the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Representative Bland, called at the Post Office Department to-day and had a conference with Postmaster-General Bissell.

THE BROWN UNIVERSITY DINNER.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

FURNITURE.

The more ample designs in furniture illustrate in a much greater degree the cleverness of the designers. Charming in particular, graceful of curve, and quite as pleasing to the eye as to the hand, are the new designs in chairs and sofas.

JEFFERSON'S BIRTHDAY.

His General Celebration Recommended by the Association of Democratic Clubs. Washington, March 22.—The National Association of Democratic Clubs has issued a notice recommending a simultaneous celebration on April 13 of the birthday of Thomas Jefferson.

THE BEHING SEN COMMISSION.

Paris, March 22.—T. Jefferson Coolidge, United States Minister, and Lord Dufferin, British Ambassador, will present to President Carnot at the Elysee to-morrow the members of the Behring Sea Commission.

Notes of Foreign Happenings.

The British Government meditates relaxing the embargo upon Canadian cattle. Mr. Gladstone dined this evening with Henry White, Secretary of the United States Legation.

MAY NOT MARRY THE COUNT.

A Betrothed American Girl in Berlin Sends a Message to Her Relatives. Louisville, March 22.—Miss Nellie Peters of this city, whose marriage to Count Gerard of Berlin has been announced to take place in April, called yesterday to relatives all the way from the place to her home.

THE BROWN UNIVERSITY DINNER.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

FURNITURE.

The more ample designs in furniture illustrate in a much greater degree the cleverness of the designers. Charming in particular, graceful of curve, and quite as pleasing to the eye as to the hand, are the new designs in chairs and sofas.

THE BROWN UNIVERSITY DINNER.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

JEFFERSON'S BIRTHDAY.

His General Celebration Recommended by the Association of Democratic Clubs. Washington, March 22.—The National Association of Democratic Clubs has issued a notice recommending a simultaneous celebration on April 13 of the birthday of Thomas Jefferson.

THE BEHING SEN COMMISSION.

Paris, March 22.—T. Jefferson Coolidge, United States Minister, and Lord Dufferin, British Ambassador, will present to President Carnot at the Elysee to-morrow the members of the Behring Sea Commission.

Notes of Foreign Happenings.

The British Government meditates relaxing the embargo upon Canadian cattle. Mr. Gladstone dined this evening with Henry White, Secretary of the United States Legation.

MAY NOT MARRY THE COUNT.

A Betrothed American Girl in Berlin Sends a Message to Her Relatives. Louisville, March 22.—Miss Nellie Peters of this city, whose marriage to Count Gerard of Berlin has been announced to take place in April, called yesterday to relatives all the way from the place to her home.

THE BROWN UNIVERSITY DINNER.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

FURNITURE.

The more ample designs in furniture illustrate in a much greater degree the cleverness of the designers. Charming in particular, graceful of curve, and quite as pleasing to the eye as to the hand, are the new designs in chairs and sofas.

THE BROWN UNIVERSITY DINNER.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

JEFFERSON'S BIRTHDAY.

His General Celebration Recommended by the Association of Democratic Clubs. Washington, March 22.—The National Association of Democratic Clubs has issued a notice recommending a simultaneous celebration on April 13 of the birthday of Thomas Jefferson.

THE BEHING SEN COMMISSION.

Paris, March 22.—T. Jefferson Coolidge, United States Minister, and Lord Dufferin, British Ambassador, will present to President Carnot at the Elysee to-morrow the members of the Behring Sea Commission.

Notes of Foreign Happenings.

The British Government meditates relaxing the embargo upon Canadian cattle. Mr. Gladstone dined this evening with Henry White, Secretary of the United States Legation.

MAY NOT MARRY THE COUNT.

A Betrothed American Girl in Berlin Sends a Message to Her Relatives. Louisville, March 22.—Miss Nellie Peters of this city, whose marriage to Count Gerard of Berlin has been announced to take place in April, called yesterday to relatives all the way from the place to her home.

THE BROWN UNIVERSITY DINNER.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

FURNITURE.

The more ample designs in furniture illustrate in a much greater degree the cleverness of the designers. Charming in particular, graceful of curve, and quite as pleasing to the eye as to the hand, are the new designs in chairs and sofas.

THE BROWN UNIVERSITY DINNER.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

JEFFERSON'S BIRTHDAY.

His General Celebration Recommended by the Association of Democratic Clubs. Washington, March 22.—The National Association of Democratic Clubs has issued a notice recommending a simultaneous celebration on April 13 of the birthday of Thomas Jefferson.

THE BEHING SEN COMMISSION.

Paris, March 22.—T. Jefferson Coolidge, United States Minister, and Lord Dufferin, British Ambassador, will present to President Carnot at the Elysee to-morrow the members of the Behring Sea Commission.

Notes of Foreign Happenings.

The British Government meditates relaxing the embargo upon Canadian cattle. Mr. Gladstone dined this evening with Henry White, Secretary of the United States Legation.

MAY NOT MARRY THE COUNT.

A Betrothed American Girl in Berlin Sends a Message to Her Relatives. Louisville, March 22.—Miss Nellie Peters of this city, whose marriage to Count Gerard of Berlin has been announced to take place in April, called yesterday to relatives all the way from the place to her home.

THE BROWN UNIVERSITY DINNER.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

FURNITURE.

The more ample designs in furniture illustrate in a much greater degree the cleverness of the designers. Charming in particular, graceful of curve, and quite as pleasing to the eye as to the hand, are the new designs in chairs and sofas.

THE BROWN UNIVERSITY DINNER.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

JEFFERSON'S BIRTHDAY.

His General Celebration Recommended by the Association of Democratic Clubs. Washington, March 22.—The National Association of Democratic Clubs has issued a notice recommending a simultaneous celebration on April 13 of the birthday of Thomas Jefferson.

THE BEHING SEN COMMISSION.

Paris, March 22.—T. Jefferson Coolidge, United States Minister, and Lord Dufferin, British Ambassador, will present to President Carnot at the Elysee to-morrow the members of the Behring Sea Commission.

Notes of Foreign Happenings.

The British Government meditates relaxing the embargo upon Canadian cattle. Mr. Gladstone dined this evening with Henry White, Secretary of the United States Legation.

MAY NOT MARRY THE COUNT.

A Betrothed American Girl in Berlin Sends a Message to Her Relatives. Louisville, March 22.—Miss Nellie Peters of this city, whose marriage to Count Gerard of Berlin has been announced to take place in April, called yesterday to relatives all the way from the place to her home.

THE BROWN UNIVERSITY DINNER.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

FURNITURE.

The more ample designs in furniture illustrate in a much greater degree the cleverness of the designers. Charming in particular, graceful of curve, and quite as pleasing to the eye as to the hand, are the new designs in chairs and sofas.

THE BROWN UNIVERSITY DINNER.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

JEFFERSON'S BIRTHDAY.

His General Celebration Recommended by the Association of Democratic Clubs. Washington, March 22.—The National Association of Democratic Clubs has issued a notice recommending a simultaneous celebration on April 13 of the birthday of Thomas Jefferson.

THE BEHING SEN COMMISSION.

Paris, March 22.—T. Jefferson Coolidge, United States Minister, and Lord Dufferin, British Ambassador, will present to President Carnot at the Elysee to-morrow the members of the Behring Sea Commission.

Notes of Foreign Happenings.

The British Government meditates relaxing the embargo upon Canadian cattle. Mr. Gladstone dined this evening with Henry White, Secretary of the United States Legation.

MAY NOT MARRY THE COUNT.

A Betrothed American Girl in Berlin Sends a Message to Her Relatives. Louisville, March 22.—Miss Nellie Peters of this city, whose marriage to Count Gerard of Berlin has been announced to take place in April, called yesterday to relatives all the way from the place to her home.

THE BROWN UNIVERSITY DINNER.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

FURNITURE.

The more ample designs in furniture illustrate in a much greater degree the cleverness of the designers. Charming in particular, graceful of curve, and quite as pleasing to the eye as to the hand, are the new designs in chairs and sofas.

THE BROWN UNIVERSITY DINNER.

The alumni of Brown University in New York and vicinity are to have their usual reunion and dinner on April 8, the new Hotel Waldorf. The event promises to be of special interest this year and a large attendance is looked for.

JEFFERSON'S BIRTHDAY.

His General Celebration Recommended by the Association of Democratic Clubs. Washington, March 22.—The National Association of Democratic Clubs has issued a notice recommending a simultaneous celebration on April 13 of the birthday of Thomas Jefferson.

THE BEHING SEN COMMISSION.